Well day three has come so quickly down here at Nationals! Only one more day of swimming left after today. It's so sad how fast this meet goes by, it sure is the truth when people say "time flies when you're having fun" because I sure am having a blast! I have met so many new friends from all over the USA. That's what so great about swimming. I am able to meet swimmers from all over the US and become good friends with them. It's always a wonderful experience to be able to meet new people and see them at meets like this.

Yesterday was such a blast. We went to the mall for a little while after the meet for lunch and to shop around. Then we went back to the hotel and some of us took naps and the rest of us went into Kaeley's room and relaxed. Haha, Kel and Eric had a pillow fight that lasted about 10 minutes. It was so funny. Then we went out to dinner at Ruby Tuesday's and told the waiters that was Kaeley's birthday. We had told the waiters last year at Friendly's that is was her birthday, though this year she wasn't as confused. After dinner we went to Toys R' Us and bought Cranium (I think that is how it is spelled). Then we went back to the hotel and played. We are not yet sure who is the winner because we had to go to bed before we were able to finish the game. We have three teams...Kaeley, Kelly and Casey...Eric, Sarah and I...Dan, Chels and Laura. As of right now team 1 is winning because they are psychic! They were doing this one challenge and it was charades and the hint they got was "it's a band". So Kel goes up and puts up two fingers (trying to say that there was two words) and Kaeley yells Rolling Stones! Like, honestly how are you suppose to know that it is the Rolling Stones by just putting up two fingers? But it is ok because me, Eric and Sarah are going to win!

Well it is time for me to leave. I must say I forgot my quotes today so I promise to write four tomorrow to make up for the two I will not be writing today! (hi allie hi eric) Well, until tomorrow!
