Today is the first day of the 2003 YMCA Long Course National Championships. This is my third time swimming at summer nationals, but so far, I have had the most fun. I am always amazed walking into the University of Maryland pool...its nothing like I have ever seen before. I love looking at the record board and seeing names of famous Olympian's, like Ed Moses, Tom Dolan, and Mike Phelps. I am swimming in the same pool they did!!! I'm sure this is the beginning of a great week of swimming for the members of my team and the rest of the swimmers at this meet...good luck to everyone!!
