

Thursday July 31, 2003

Today is the last day of competition...this week flew by so fast! Its funny to work all year long for only 4 days of swimming, but it was worth it. I will take home lots of happy memories. I have met so many great people and even made some new friends who I am looking forward to seeing again next year. Congratulations of all swimmers who have competed this past week and good luck!

Mary Beth Gorinski
Greensburg YMCA Swim Team
Greensburg, PA