

Day 3
7-28-05

Today has been an ok day so far. We have people swimming in every event today. Our 800 free relay is seated top 16; last year we placed 17th in it. We all are superultramega excited to swim it. Ashley is swimming her 200 back; she's going for her 12th national title. Right now I'm nervous because I am giving the dedication tomorrow. There is a really bad chance that we won't get to go to Smoothie King. It's uber upsetting. Maybe we'll go after finals. Right now we're watching people on the team swim.
