

Day 2
7-27-05

Today was a lot fun. I swam my 800 free. My team sat around and played cards. While sitting in our team area 2 boys from another team jumped into the garbage can. It was very funny. We went to Smoothie King, because it's awesome. No one really made finals so we all went back to the hotel and "rested."

During finals there was a thunderstorm and the power went off in the pool. It was raining bad. We had to run to the van.

After we did our finals warm-up we bought our dinner and went to the hotel. After we ate we had a dance party in the hotel. It was very funny because none of us can dance especially Ashley Jones. The best dancer on our team is the inflatable monkey.
