

Glass Tears

By Randal S. Doaty

*The tears that fall upon your cheek
Are formed from words that angels speak,
The dew of love that forms upon your soul.*

*This tear of glass we give to you,
A tear that lets God's light shine through,
Reflecting love from deep within our hearts.*

*A tear can't take away the pain,
Nor words of man to you explain,
A darkness cast upon your very soul.*

*A tear of glass ~ a tear of love,
Along with prayers to God above,
We offer in these times of deep despair.*

*We give this lasting tear of glass,
A token of a life that passed,
A simple way that we can share your pain.*

*In years to come tears fade away,
But a tear of glass is meant to stay,
Like friends who join you on your darkest day.*

*Tear of glass, tear of glass,
Let the light of God get past
To show the path that He has laid for you.*

*Tear of glass, tear of glass,
Reflecting light that God has cast
To welcome home a spirit born anew.*
