FAMOUS YMCA PEOPLE

Lindsay Benko won three medals in '00 and '04 Olympics and was a member of Elkhart Y swim team.

Ian Crocker learned to swim at Portland YMCA in Maine and has won 4 medals in '00 and '04 Olympics.

One of the most decorated Olympic swimmers, Jenny Thompson, has earned 12 medals in the '92, '96, '00, and '04 Olympics and was a Y kid at the Merrimack Valley Y.

Janet Evans, who won three gold medals in the '88 Olympics, was an amateur athlete of the year for '89.

Mark Spitz learned to swim at the Sacramento YMCA in 1958.

Ronald Reagan learned lifesaving and played the drum in the band at the Dixon (Ill.) YMCA.

Wilt Chamberlain, when he was 16, was on the national YMCA champion men's team.

When bad weather forced him off the baseball diamond, Frank Robinson was in the YMCA playing basketball.

George Bush played basketball at the YMCA as a young man and later helped start the YMCA in Midland, Texas.

Christian Laettner of Duke, the Dream Team, and the Atlanta Hawks, and Cliff Robinson of the Portland Trailblazers were on the same YMCA basketball team.

Curly Neal of Harlem Globetrotter fame learned to play basketball at the YMCA.

Aaron Spelling, TV producer, said the YMCA was his one escape from the streets; the chance to be part of something—the family of the Y.

Bob Newhart said the YMCA was a "very important part of my childhood."

Senator Bob Kerrey's Y youth program leader said Kerrey was a "YMCA rat" growing up.

Vic Mitchell, world-class bridge player, was taken to the Brooklyn YMCA by a policeman.

Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer said that the San Francisco YMCA's Youth and Government program was an important influence in his life.

Darryl Stingley, NFL player, was a "self-described 'product of the YMCA system'"

Award-winning author, Frederick Exley's autobiographical novels include the Y

Anthony Hopkins played one of his first parts in "Othello" at his local YMCA

FUN FACTS

HISTORY OF THE YMCA LOGO

In 1878, the Eighth Conference of the World Alliance of YMCAs met in Geneva, Switzerland, and had on its agenda the creation of a distinctive international badge of the Associations. The matter was turned over to a committee, and three years later at the Ninth Conference in London, the alliance approved the following:

A circle, depicting the oneness of mankind, divided at its outside edge into five segments bearing the names of five parts of the world as they were described at the time Europe, Asia, Oceania, Africa and America separated by small decorative scrolls called cartouches upon which can be read in many languages the initials of our title, YMCA.

Inside the circle are the first two letters of the word Christ. The Greek letters Chi and Rho (XP) form the ancient symbol that early Christians painted on the walls of the catacombs. It was used by the Y to remind all that Christ was at the center of the movement.

Finally an open Bible was added both because this divine book is the weapon of warfare which St. John gives to young men, and because it's the distinguishing mark of the great Reformation. The Bible opens on the Savior's High Priestly prayer, from which we have especially chosen the 21st verse: That they all may be one...as We are one'—John 17:21."

Behind the book and symbols was an aura of golden rays. The action on the badge was noteworthy, wrote one YMCA historian, because the phrase "that they all may be one" became the supreme expression of the ecumenical purposes of the World Alliance, pulling together those of many sects.

Luther H. Gulick, who revolutionized sports and physical fitness at the YMCA, proposed a red equilateral triangle as a symbol in 1891. It was adopted immediately by Springfield College. The sides of the triangle, Gulick said, stood for an essential unity—spirit, mind, and body—each being necessary and eternal part of man, being neither one alone but all three," a "wonderful combination of dust of the earth and the breath of God."

Gulick wanted something that would "stick right out" and not be confused with the Red Cross symbol "yet be just as simple and strong. The red triangle was just that, and it swept the movement, carried around the world by U.S. foreign secretaries.

In 1895, the annual convention of the U.S. and Canadian YMCAs authorized adding the triangle to the old World Alliance insignia. "The cumbersome design that resulted—a superimposition of the triangle upon the circle, open Bible, and Christian monogram of the World Alliance—was largely reserved for official use, for Gulick's triangle had long since become the unofficial emblem on the jerseys of athletic teams, over the doors of local associations, and on lapel pins," another historian wrote. The resulting design of the official emblem dropped the continents, aura and cartouches along the way, though it's not clear when that took place. They are not shown on the so-called Gulick design.

The superimposed logo, first used in 1896, was registered by the National Board of YMCAs in 1965 with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. In the intervening 69 years, Gulick's version was revised, with a second ring added inside the rest during the 1950s. It was said that the second ring represented friendship and love without end among individuals. This remains the YMCA's official emblem. The everyday logo from 1897 to 1967 was the red triangle. About the time of World War I, a blue bar was placed over it reading "YMCA." The use of the triangle and bar logo accelerated during the war, when it marked the 26,000 men and women from the U.S. Y who served in the United States and France.

After 70 years of using symbols in various combinations and styles, some felt the need for a change. "We had shaped and reshaped, used and abused our symbol so much that no strong, single corporate identity came through," said John Root, Chicago's general executive at the time. He asked a Chicago designer to produce a new logo. The result was the triangle and bent bar that looks like the letter Y. It was a combination of modern design and Gulick's traditional triangle. When the National Board met in November 1967, it approved Root's new logo for use throughout the movement. It was registered that same year and remains the official logo.

The new brand strategy – the result of more than two years of analysis and research – was introduced July 2010. The YMCA unveiled a new, more forward-looking logo that reflects the vibrancy and diversity of the organization, and a framework that focuses resources on three core areas: youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. In another major change, the nonprofit will be called "the Y" to align with how people most commonly refer to the organization.

TRAVEL ASSISTANCE

YMCA Swimming and Diving

Due to our commitment to youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility, the YMCA of the USA provided $4500 for the travel expenses of 8 Long Course Y-National qualifiers. The YMCA has granted $72,500 to 76 swimmers since 2012.

The travel assistance committee wants to make sure that swimmer athletes can participate at the national level regardless of their financial status.

Swimmers must be receiving financial support from their local YMCA, and a letter of request detailing the circumstances for the travel assistance must be submitted by the team coach and signed by the Local Y executive. The maximum allocation is $600. This funding is available for both Short and Long Course National Championships.

These following personal testimonials demonstrate the need and value of this program.

"I want to thank you for supporting me in competing at Y Nationals. I have incredible coaches who have been role models for me and my other team members."

"Without a doubt, it is one of the most memorable and impacting experiences of my life."

"The amount of excitement felt on the pool deck during this meet is something special that cannot be replaced. It is a tremendous honor. Thank you for funding my passion!"

The Travel Assistance Committee is very proud of the number of the swimmers served and we want to make sure that the Y swimming community is aware of this program and will share it with athletes who could possibly benefit from this funding opportunity. The information is posted on the Y Nat swimming site in advance of the meets.

IN REMEMBRANCE ADOLPH KIEFER MEMORIAL FUND

Olympic Gold Medalist • Inventor • Entrepreneur
June 27, 1918 – May 5, 2017

In the last years of his life, Adolph Kiefer felt strongly that he wanted to make additional contributions to the swimming world and, in particular, one that would address financial need in the swimming community- similar to the circumstances he found himself in as a young swimmer in the 1920's.

Adolph might have known that he had already created a powerful legacy as an Olympic champion, saver of lives, inventor of essential swimming equipment, and businessman. He wanted his legacy to include a fund that would provide some help in the form of scholarship support to outstanding young people invested in swimming and swimming lessons for all.

ADOLPH KIEFER MEMORIAL FUND

At Adolph's request, the Kiefer family with the YMCA of the USA (YUSA) have established the Adolph Kiefer Memorial Fund to continue to foster his devotion and passion for swimming.

Through the generosity of Adolph and the Kiefer family, starting in 2018, the centennial of Adolph Kiefer's birth, the YUSA and the Adolph Kiefer Memorial Fund will present Outstanding Athlete Awards to one male and one female swimmer at the YMCA Short Course Nationals. These awards recognize two swimmers each year for their excellence in academic achievement and commitment to healthy living and social responsibility through YMCA competitive swimming

CONTRIBUTING TO THE FUND

Your gifts made in memory of Adolph Kiefer, to celebrate his contributions to swimming safety and instruction, will go towards financial assistance to local YMCAs and provide learn-to-swim lessons for children and families unable to afford them.

Click here, https://yusa.formstack.com/forms/adolph_kiefer_memorial_fund to donate to this fund and honor Adolph while supporting Adolph's and the YMCA's commitment to water safety for all.
