Which Fan are you?

The Seat Saver

I know I am saving the good seats, but I have friends who like to show up after the start of the session

The Screamer

I don't just cheer. I yell, screech, scream, and holler when my son swim. I'm very emotional. I have to be the loudest person in the stands or he won't hear me

The Sign Holder

Without a large sign, how will my daughter see me in the stands as she swims

The Photographer

I have an expensive camera, so I need to stand at the railing and take flash pictures at the start of my daughter's races

The Noise Maker

I bought a horn so my son can hear my support even when his head is under water

The Respectful Spectator

I enjoy sitting with my friends but we all try to get to the stands well before the start of the session. I cheer for all the swimmers ... even swimmers from other teams who are on pace to break a record. I try to respect all the people who have volunteered to make this event a life long experience while also making sure my actions don't negatively impact the experience for other parents

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT®

FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

July 31, 2017

Welcome to the 2017 YMCA National Long Course Championship!

It is commonly known that swimming teaches youth to have fun and safe around the water, but it's so much more than that. At the Y, we believe in preparing these exceptional young athletes with the skills needed to reach their full potential both inside and outside the pool by supporting them in their unique youth development journeys.

For some athletes, this will be their first time participating in the National Long Course Championship. For others, this is an annual event. But for everyone alike, this is a great opportunity that allows us all to come together to celebrate and witness the great achievements of all involved.

On behalf of my colleagues at YMCA of the USA, and the many devoted volunteers who have worked tirelessly to bring this momentous event to life, we are so glad to welcome all of you – athletes, coaches, and families– to Greensboro. I also wish to thank you for your continued support, enthusiasm and hard work to get here. Long Course, and the Y's Cause of strengthening community, are not possible without you.

With tremendous gratitude,

Jonathan Lever

IN REMEMBRANCE ADOLPH KIEFER MEMORIAL FUND

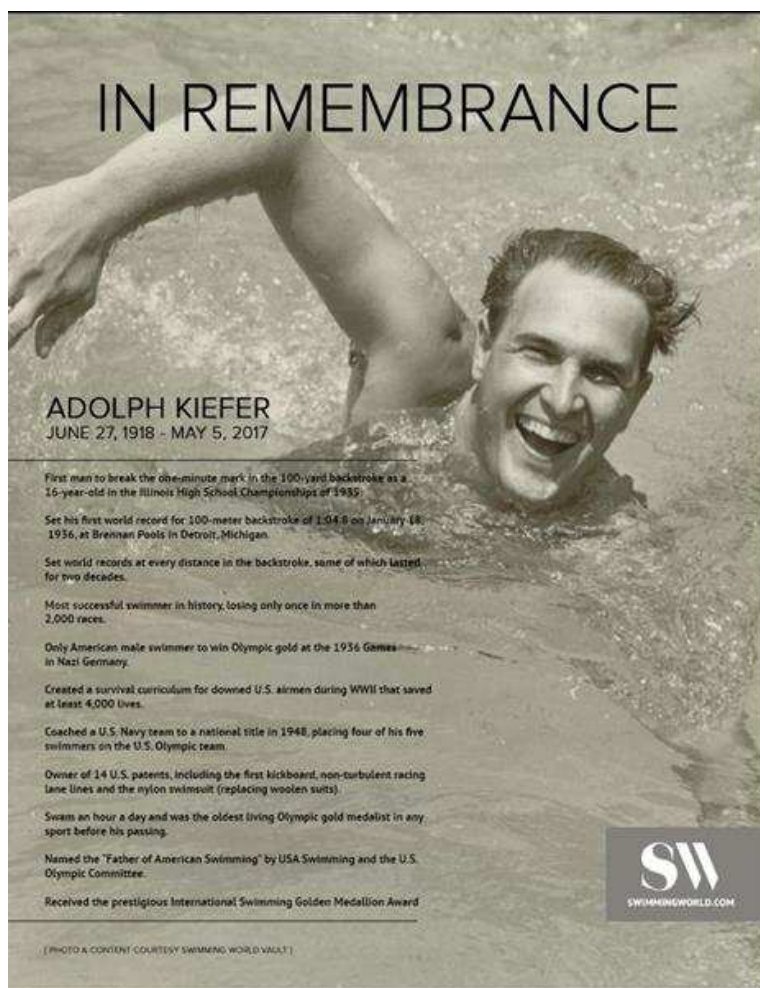

Olympic Gold Medalist • Inventor • Entrepreneur
June 27, 1918 – May 5, 2017

In the last years of his life, Adolph Kiefer felt strongly that he wanted to make additional contributions to the swimming world and, in particular, one that would address financial need in the swimming community- similar to the circumstances he found himself in as a young swimmer in the 1920's.

Adolph might have known that he had already created a powerful legacy as an Olympic champion, saver of lives, inventor of essential swimming equipment, and businessman. He wanted his legacy to include a fund that would provide some help in the form of scholarship support to outstanding young people invested in swimming and swimming lessons for all.

ADOLPH KIEFER MEMORIAL FUND

At Adolph's request, the Kiefer family with the YMCA of the USA (YUSA) have established the Adolph Kiefer Memorial Fund to continue to foster his devotion and passion for swimming.

Through the generosity of Adolph and the Kiefer family, starting in 2018, the centennial of Adolph Kiefer's birth, the YUSA and the Adolph Kiefer Memorial Fund will present Outstanding Athlete Awards to one male and one female swimmer at the YMCA Short Course Nationals. These awards recognize two swimmers each year for their excellence in academic achievement and commitment to healthy living and social responsibility through YMCA competitive swimming

CONTRIBUTING TO THE FUND

Your gifts made in memory of Adolph Kiefer, to celebrate his contributions to swimming safety and instruction, will go towards financial assistance to local YMCAs and provide learn-to-swim lessons for children and families unable to afford them.

Click here, https://yusa.formstack.com/forms/adolph_kiefer_memorial_fund to donate to this fund and honor Adolph while supporting Adolph's and the YMCA's commitment to water safety for all.
