YMCA NATIONAL SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIP

MULTIPLE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES HAVE HISTORICALLY HAD CONNECTIONS TO THE YMCA.

Springfield College, of Springfield, Massachusetts, was founded in 1885 as an international training school for YMCA Professionals. In 1891 James Naismith, a Canadian American, invented basketball while studying at the YMCA International Training School in Springfield, Massachusetts (later to be named Springfield College). Naismith had been asked to invent a new game in an attempt to interest pupils in physical exercise. The game had to be interesting, easy to learn, and easy to play indoors in winter. Such an activity was needed both by the Training School and by YMCAs across the country.

Concordia University started from night courses offered at the Montreal YMCA.

Northeastern University (Boston, Massachusetts) began out of a YMCA in Boston, and Franklin University began as the YMCA School of Commerce. San Francisco's Golden Gate University traces its roots to the founding of the YMCA Night School on 1 November 1881.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW

Detroit College of Law, now the Michigan State University College of Law, was founded with a strong connection to the Detroit, Michigan YMCA. It had a 99-year lease on the site, and it was only when it expired did the college move to East

Lansing, Michigan.

Youngstown State University traces its roots to the establishment of a law school by the local YMCA in 1908. The Nashville School of Law was the YMCA Night Law School until November 1986, having offered law classes since 1911 and the degree of Jurist Doctor since January 1927.

YMCA pioneered the concept of night school, providing educational opportunities for people with full-time employment. Many YMCAs offer ESL programs, alternative high school, day care, and summer camp programs. In the India, YMCA University of Science and Technology Faridabad was founded in 1969. It offers various program related to science and engineering.

This swimmer athlete’s statement illustrates the need, the importance, and the impact of the YMCA of the USA travel assistance funding.

For the 2018 Long Course National Championships $6,782.00 was granted to 13 swimmer athletes for their lodging and travel expenses. The total amount of travel assistance given in 2018 was $19,282.00 benefiting 43 swimmers.

The YMCA of the USA will again in 2019 provide funding for swimmer athletes who are receiving financial aid from their local Y’s. The YMCA wants to make sure that every qualifying Y swimmer will have that lifetime experience of swimming at a YMCA National Championship meet.

Coaches are strongly encouraged to submit applications for swimmers in need of financial support. The application and criteria will be posted on the Y Nat swimming web site in early December.

HISTORY OF THE YMCA LOGO

In 1878, the Eighth Conference of the World Alliance of YMCAs met in Geneva, Switzerland, and had on its agenda the creation of a distinctive international badge of the Associations. The matter was turned over to a committee, and three years later at the Ninth Conference in London, the alliance approved the following:

A circle, depicting the oneness of mankind, divided at its outside edge into five segments bearing the names of five parts of the world as they were described at the time Europe, Asia, Oceania, Africa and America separated by small decorative scrolls called cartouches upon which can be read in many languages the initials of our title, YMCA.

Inside the circle are the first two letters of the word Christ. The Greek letters Chi and Rho (XP) form the ancient symbol that early Christians painted on the walls of the catacombs. It was used by the Y to remind all that Christ was at the center of the movement.

Finally an open Bible was added both because this divine book is the weapon of warfare which St. John gives to young men, and because it's the distinguishing mark of the great Reformation. The Bible opens on the Savior's High Priestly prayer, from which we have especially chosen the 21st verse: That they all may be one...as We are one'—John 17:21."

Behind the book and symbols was an aura of golden rays. The action on the badge was noteworthy, wrote one YMCA historian, because the phrase "that they all may be one" became the supreme expression of the ecumenical purposes of the World Alliance, pulling together those of many sects.

Luther H. Gulick, who revolutionized sports and physical fitness at the YMCA, proposed a red equilateral triangle as a symbol in 1891. It was adopted immediately by Springfield College. The sides of the triangle, Gulick said, stood for an essential unity—spirit, mind, and body—each being necessary and eternal part of man, being neither one alone but all three," a "wonderful combination of dust of the earth and the breath of God."

Gulick wanted something that would "stick right out" and not be confused with the Red Cross symbol "yet be just as simple and strong. The red triangle was just that, and it swept the movement, carried around the world by U.S. foreign secretaries.

HISTORY OF THE YMCA LOGO (CONTINUED)

In 1895, the annual convention of the U.S. and Canadian YMCAs authorized adding the triangle to the old World Alliance insignia. "The cumbersome design that resulted—a superimposition of the triangle upon the circle, open Bible, and Christian monogram of the World Alliance—was largely reserved for official use, for Gulick's triangle had long since become the unofficial emblem on the jerseys of athletic teams, over the doors of local associations, and on lapel pins," another historian wrote. The resulting design of the official emblem dropped the continents, aura and cartouches along the way, though it's not clear when that took place. They are not shown on the so-called Gulick design.

The superimposed logo, first used in 1896, was registered by the National Board of YMCAs in 1965 with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. In the intervening 69 years, Gulick's version was revised, with a second ring added inside the rest during the 1950s. It was said that the second ring represented friendship and love without end among individuals. This remains the YMCA's official emblem. The everyday logo from 1897 to 1967 was the red triangle. About the time of World War I, a blue bar was placed over it reading "YMCA." The use of the triangle and bar logo accelerated during the war, when it marked the 26,000 men and women from the U.S. Y who served in the United States and France.

After 70 years of using symbols in various combinations and styles, some felt the need for a change. "We had shaped and reshaped, used and abused our symbol so much that no strong, single corporate identity came through," said John Root, Chicago's general executive at the time. He asked a Chicago designer to produce a new logo. The result was the triangle and bent bar that looks like the letter Y. It was a combination of modern design and Gulick's traditional triangle. When the National Board met in November 1967, it approved Root's new logo for use throughout the movement. It was registered that same year and remains the official logo.

The new brand strategy – the result of more than two years of analysis and research – was introduced July 2010. The YMCA unveiled a new, more forward-looking logo that reflects the vibrancy and diversity of the organization, and a framework that focuses resources on three core areas: youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. In another major change, the nonprofit will be called "the Y" to align with how people most commonly refer to the organization.
