

2013 YMCA Nationals College Coaches Roundtable

The 2013 College Coaches Roundtable is educational session at this year's YMCA Short Course Nationals on the college admission process. Four college coaches will talk about the admissions process from their varying perspectives as the coaches of successful swimming programs at four very different institutions of higher education

The session is open to all coaches, parents, and swimmers attending YMCA Short Course

Moderator: Glenn Neufeld, Upper Main Line YMCA

Coach Neufeld has been at UMLY for over a decade. He has also coached at the University of Alabama, the New Canaan YMCA, and the Peddie School. He was the 2011 YMCA National Coach of the Year and has helped to place many student-athletes in college and university settings as a coach and college counselor.

Participating Coaches:

Jerry Foley, Susquehanna University

Susquehanna University is a division III school in central Pennsylvania that competes in the Landmark Conference. Coach Foley has also been an assistant at West Point and was the head coach of Bucknell University in the Patriot League. He also has extensive experience as a club and YMCA coach.

Mike Schnur, University of Pennsylvania

Coach Schnur has been the head coach at Penn for 14 years. He graduated from Penn in 1988 and has served as both a team captain and an assistant coach as well. This past summer, Penn grad Brendan McHugh finaled in both breaststroke events at Olympic Trials.

Kirk Sanocki, Wingate University

Wingate University is a division II school in North Carolina that competes in the Bluegrass Mountain Conference. Coach Sanocki has been at Wingate for 11 years and was named the 2012 National Division II coach of the year for his teams fifth place finish at the NCAA Championships. He is also the current president of the College Swimming Coaches Association of America.

Bill Wadley, Ohio State University

Coach Wadley has been at Ohio State for 24 seasons and is one of the most respected coaches in the country. The 2010 Big Ten men's coach of the year has placed teams in the Top 25 for most of his tenure at OSU. He is a past president of the American Swimming Coaches Association and has been on the US National team staff a number of times.
