Biographical Notes: James “Doc” Councilman was the recipient of the Joseph G. Rogers Award in 1991. Jim grew up using the YMCA in his home town of St. Louis, MO. He competed in several YMCA National Championships and was a National YMCA Record holder in the 200 Yard Breaststroke before attending Ohio State University. Jim became the team Captain at OSU and was an NCAA Champion swimmer on Ohio State’s National Championship Teams in 1946 and 1947. His coaching career began as an Assistant Coach at Illinois in 1948, then at Iowa from 1948-1952. Jim became the coach at Cortland State in 1952 and in 1958 he became the Head Swimming Coach at Indiana University until he retired in 1990. Under Jim’s leadership his Indiana teams won 23 Big Ten Championships (20 in a row 1961-1980) and six consecutive NCAA Championships. In addition, Jim’s teams won 140 consecutive dual meets from 1966 thru 1979, and went undefeated in the Big Ten from 1969 thru 1979. In 1979 Jim became the oldest swimmer to swim the English Channel at the age of 58. Throughout his career Jim Councilman has never forgotten his roots in the YMCA. Jim and members of his Indiana University swim team hosted and participated in many YMCA competitive swimming and diving clinics throughout the Midwest. His support and feelings for the YMCA were never more evident when he was inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame in 1976. Jim’s closing sentiment was “Not bad for a swimmer who started at the East St. Louis YMCA!” James Councilman swam in our 1940, 1946 and 1948 National YMCA Swimming and Diving Championship Meets
